Madison Local School District's school board meeting was held Wednesday, Sept. 18, in the Madison Middle School Auditoria.

Madison Comprehensive High School Principal Sean Conway and athletic director Doug Rickert gave a presentation.

A donation of $230 was accepted from the company and employees of TE Connectivity for student lunch charges at the high school.

Treasurer Bradd Stevens received approval of the monthly financial report, the permanent appropriations for FY25 and the student activity budgets for FY25.

The superintendent recommends the board of education approve resident educator mentors for the 2024-'25 school year including Kristen Agee (2), JoAnna Burke, Brittany Farley, Patrick McLaughlin (2), Zinda Thomas and Jim Thompson.

The board approved a stipend in the amount of $1,800 for Karen VonStein, lead resident educator mentor for the current school year.

Substitute teachers hired on an "on call" basis, as needed for the 2024-'25 school year are Melanie Bradley, Maris Bucci, Bethany Cetinich, Ricky Chambers, Betty Chapman, Dawn Chinn, Laurie Dean, Nathan Deter, Erica Edit, Samantha Hoffman, Jessica Long, Drena Miller, Alice Moreland, Thomas Nesbitt, Hannah Owens, Gaven Remy, Sydney Shasky, Stanley Wertz, Julie Yetzer and Kelly ZaKrajsek.

THE ENTERTAINMENT EXAMINER
— By Ian Stumbo —

The horror movie Tarot was released earlier this year and is now streaming on Netflix. This movie is very comparable to the Final Destination series and also the movie Truth or Dare. A group of friends come together and one of them finds a mysterious box of hand drawn tarot cards. A reading is done and soon all of the tarot cards come to life and start to murder each person based on what their reading said.

ing if the filmmakers just went for it and didn't saturate it. The characters aren't all that likable, though in a 90-minute movie they are dispatched so quickly it's hard to get attached to any of them.

The main story around the box of cards is interesting and there is a central plot line where the friends have to try and break the curse of these cards, though every turn is just achingly predictable and boring that the movie becomes a clock watcher and the audience will probably stick with it just to see how it ends.

Tarot is worth a stream for the concept, though not a good movie just based on how the audience will probably see everything coming from a mile away. The kills are lackluster and the entire movie suffers because of these huge faults with the film.

Tarot is the definition of a mediocre predictable horror movie. It's a wonder how some of these movies actually get off the page and onto the screen.

The concept itself is interesting as each of the beings on the cards come to life and some look pretty creepy (especially the Fool), though the movie itself just suffers from being terribly boring.

I usually try to look beyond the rating of a film though this one is PG-13 and was almost too tame. The kills in the movie would have been more interest-

Red Cross blood donors needed now to help combat critical need

The American Red Cross continues to amplify the ongoing critical need for blood and platelets to keep the blood supply stable as fall begins. Donors of all blood types, especially those with type O blood, those giving platelets and those who have never given before, are needed now.

Make an appointment to give now by visiting RedCrossBlood.org, calling 1-800-RED CROSS or by using the Red Cross Blood Donor App. In thanks, those who come to give by Sept. 30 will receive a $15 e-gift card to a merchant of choice. See RedCrossBlood.org/Fall for details.

Those who come to give Oct. 1-31 will receive a $10 Amazon.com gift card by email, plus be automatically entered for a chance to win one of three $5,000 gift cards.

Upcoming blood donation opportunities include:

Training is free and volunteer service times are flexible and entirely up to the volunteer. Individuals that could spare around 4-6 hours a month, could make a significant impact in providing these critical Red Cross services in and around our local community. Constance L. "Connie" Stuckert

Constance L. "Connie" Stuckert, age 85, of Ontario, passed away peacefully early Saturday morning, Sept. 28, 2024 at her home.

Connie was born Jan. 28, 1939 in Mansfield to the late Clifford J. and Arlene C. (Long) Stevens.

A 1956 graduate of Shelby High School, she then began work at the Autocall Company in Shelby and later Wagner Hardware in Mansfield. Connie married Joe R. Stuckert on January 11, 1958. In 1959, they moved to Findlay where they resided until 1966 before returning to Ontario. It was in Ontario that they deeply planted their roots and made a home.

Upon their return to Ontario, they joined the Ontario United Methodist Church where Connie served for many years as Secretary for the Finance Committee and Administrative Board/Council. She was Chairperson of the Administrative Board/Council, Chairperson of the Staff Parish Relations Committee, and served as the church Treasurer. She was continuously active in all church activities including assisting with confirmation classes for 8 years. Her church and church family always remained a very important part of Connie's life.

Additionally, Connie and Joe were great supporters of Ontario Schools and their students. For over ten years, they enjoyed volunteering at the concession stands for both football and basketball games at Ontario High School. Her greatest joy was her great grandchildren- loving them and being a part of their lives. All children, whether her own or not, brought her much happiness.

For her career, Connie worked with Richland County Legal Aid before being employed for 31 years by the UAW-GM Legal Services Plan as their office manager. Following retirement, Connie continued to work part-time for the UAW-GM Legal Services Plan.

Connie is survived by her family she loved dearly; her daughter and son-in-law: Joni L. and Jeff Davis of Ontario; grandchildren: Angela Cunningham (Ian Zeune) of Ontario, Joshua (Nikki) Davis of Mansfield, and Joe (Alexis) Davis of Galion; great grandchildren: Caden Cunningham, Christian Carver, Matthew Carver, Emily Davis, Olivia Davis, Isaac Davis, Nathan Davis, Braelynn Davis, and Chesney Davis; half-sister: Becky Kathrein; and other relatives and friends, included dear friend: Barb Petit.

In addition to her parents, her husband, Joe, preceded her in death on March 27, 2021, along with her daughter: Amy Cunningham on Feb. 2, 2022; brothers and sister-in-law: Thomas Stevens and Edward and Carolyn Stevens; and brother-in-law and sister-in-law: Richard and Nancy Stuckert.

The family would like to especially thank the team from Southern Care Hospice for their exceptional care of Connie-specifically her nurse, Brittany, and social worker, Michelle.

Family and friends are welcome on Saturday, Oct. 12, 2024 from 11 am to 1 pm at Ontario United Methodist Church, 3540 Park Avenue W, Ontario, where funeral services will immediately follow at 1 pm.

Pastor Chris Bell will officiate the services, assisted by Pastor George Lee, with burial following in the adjoining Ontario Community Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the church or Southern Care Hospice.

Condolences may be left on Connie's obituary on the funeral home's website at PenwellFuneralHome.com or the Facebook page at Facebook.com/PenwellFuneralHome.

Plymouth FFA introduces officer team members

By Nicole Beverage,
Plymouth FFA Reporter

In the spring of 2024, the Plymouth FFA Chapter elected the 2024-'25 officer team. Candidates went through a series of requirements in order to be put on the ballot.

First, they had to fill out an application that explained how they would make our chapter and community better. Then, they completed an in person interview with alumni members. During the interview, the alumni members graded their responses, confidence, and how well they thought the candidate would assist in running the chapter. Finally, the candidates explained to their classmates why they aspire to become an officer. After explaining, the chapter members cast their vote on who the new officers would be.

The 2024-'25 Plymouth FFA Officer Team members are president, Katelyn Swingle; vice president, Kristen Swingle; secretary, Ava Stine; treasurer, Kansas Huston; reporter, Nicole Beverage; parliamentarian, Addy Vorhees; sentinel, Isaiah Miller; student Advisor, Dallas Thompson; and historian, Matthew Gillum.

Throughout the year, the chapter officer team spends time planning events, making decisions, and setting up chapter meetings. Each officer puts a lot of work and time into the FFA chapter. Biographies have been provided of each officer below.

President: Hello, my name is Katelyn Swingle. I am the daughter of George and Sherri Lewis and a senior at Plymouth High School. This is my third year as an officer as I was the vice president last year and the secretary before that. I have been in FFA since eighth grade which makes five years.

Being an officer is an amazing opportunity. I love to oversee our chapter and be able to push people out of their comfort zones. I want to make our chapter the best that it can absolutely be. My favorite things to do in FFA are Career Development Events like food science and poultry. I also love to show animals at the Richland County Fair for my SAE.

Vice president: Hi, I'm Kristen Swingle, the daughter of George and Sherri Lewis. I am currently the chapter vice president helping guide my twin sister, who is the president. I have been in FFA for five years with this last being my last to be a Plymouth FFA Member. Going into my senior year is bittersweet to me because it means my time as an officer and member is winding down.

FFA has been an important topic in my life since I first walked in as an eighth grader not knowing how big the impact would be on my life. It has given me more confidence in public speaking, gotten me more involved in many activities, and has gotten me out of my comfort zone.

A big part is that FFA has opened up so many opportunities for me that I'm eternally grateful for. I would recommend to younger members to get involved in FFA and try to do things because you never know where it might take you.

Secretary: Hey my name is Ava Stine, I am a senior and serving as our chapters secretary. This will be my third year serving as an FFA officer and fifth year in FFA. I love being in FFA as it has given me so many opportunities, getting to step out of my comfort zone, and being able to experience so many amazing things. Such as going to leadership conferences to better my skills in being a great leader. I will never forget my journey in FFA with this being my last year! I'm so excited to see what this year brings!

Treasurer: Hello, I am Kansas Huston. I am a senior as well as our treasurer. This is my third year being an officer, and fifth year being in FFA. FFA has brought me so many experiences and brought me out of my comfort zone. I'm so glad to have been a part of my chapter; and although I am saddened that this is my last year, I am excited to see what happens this year!

Reporter: I'm Nicole Beverage, the daughter of Keith and Jenny Beverage. I am currently a junior at Plymouth High School and serving as the chapter reporter. This is my 4th year being involved in FFA and my 3rd year serving as an officer.

I am beyond grateful for all the opportunities FFA has given me. I enjoy working with my SAE, a market steer, and participating in livestock judging in the spring. FFA has pushed me to step out of my comfort zone and helped me to strengthen my confidence in public speaking as well as other areas. Being a part of this organization has had a big impact on my life, in ways I never would have expected. I've attended some incredible trips and met some of my closest friends through this incredible organization!

Sentinel: Hi, I am Isaiah Miller, I'm currently serving as the sentinel for the current Plymouth FFA officer team, I have been in FFA for 2 years. I am also currently a sophomore at Plymouth High School and plan on taking college credit plus classes my junior and senior years.

FFA is a great way for kids to grow and learn new ways to do things, it pushes them out of their comfort zone to do more for the better. FFA has helped me become a better person by helping me be able to publicly speak and be open about different things. FFA has a lot more opportunities to give me and I am ready to take them on.

Student advisor: My name is Dallas Thompson, I am the son of Sam Phillips and Renae Reading. I am going on my third year in FFA and if I have learned anything while I have been in the FFA is to include yourself and go beyond your comfort zone.

It has helped me learn so many new things about myself and has given me so many more opportunities that have helped me through life. A fun fact about me is I run track and cross country, I also really enjoy fishing and reading. I would also like to thank my family, Mrs Ringler, and all of my friends for helping me get to this point and for continuing to push me to be a better person.

Historian: My name is Matthew Gillum. I am a senior and this is my 5th year in FFA. I serve as our chapter historian. I have attended previous events such as National Convention, State Convention and Washington Leadership Conference. I play football, run cross country and track, and play basketball.

I am also involved in my school's student council. I have found FFA through many experiences to be truly enlightening and something I wouldn't regret.

Romanchuk announces more than $1 million for local revitalization projects

State Senator Mark Romanchuk (R-Ontario) announced more than $1 million for economic development projects in Ashland.

"This funding is a necessary first step in rejuvenating our communities, building businesses, and attracting more people to Ashland," Romanchuk said. "I'm excited to see the results of these efforts."

Ashland County will receive $1,009,632 for the demolition of 12 vacant and dilapidated buildings. This funding comes from the fifth round of the Demolition and Site Revitalization program, which has so far awarded more than $233 million to over 5,000 projects in all 88 Ohio counties. This grant program were allocated funds through House Bill 33, the state's main operating budget, which Senator Romanchuk supported.

City of Mt. Vernon, Ariel Foundation Park to host Servitus 2024 on Oct. 12

Knox County Career Center's (KCCC) Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) has partnered with the City of Mount Vernon and Ariel Foundation Park for "Servitus 2024", which will be a day of celebrating those who serve. The public is invited to join us on Saturday, Oct. 12 from 9 am to 4 pm Ariel Foundation Park, 10 Pittsburgh Ave., Mt. Vernon. There will be vendors, food trucks and military displays, just to name a few items of interest.

In addition, the KCCC's JROTC will host other JROTC units for a fitness competition in the park. JROTC's cadets will be competing against students from 29 other teams from Ohio and Pennsylvania in a tower climb, Army Humvee pull, and obstacle courses.

The public is encouraged to come watch the cadets compete and cheer them on.

"We are looking forward to Celebrating SERVITUS 2024 with the community this year," said Colonel Chris Salvucci, KCCC's JROTC Senior Aerospace Science Instructor. "The word servitus was derived from the Latin root word for servant or someone who serves others, and it matches our purpose for this day. SERVITUS aims to celebrate those who serve others, educate the next generation on what it means to live a life of humble service, and encourage people to start living that life today."

"Whether that life is serving in uniform as a military member, serving locally as a first responder, or serving as a volunteer for a civic organization, no act of serving others is too small. SERVITUS aims to build a commitment to service into the fiber of our community. This characteristic would be a unique strength of our community and bind us together like a braided rope that is stronger than its many parts once woven together."

"If successful, SERVITUS 2024 will plant a seed of hope in future generations who recognize it is better to serve others rather than be served, whether that service is large or small, full-time professional or part-time volunteer. That seed planted today will be the oak tree we find shelter under in the future." Salvucci added, "What began ten years ago as a small fitness competition has expanded to a multi-state competition involving 29 teams and over 400 cadets. This year, as the students are learning about teamwork, self-sacrifice, and supporting others on the field of competition, we will add opportunities for them to meet and speak with people who have dedicated their lives to serving others. Hopefully, they will find the link between their small efforts and sacrifices during the day and the more significant efforts and sacrifices made by those who serve in a profession of service. The community will also be able to interact with these service-driven individuals and organizations throughout the day, expanding the outreach of our efforts beyond the JROTC program. In the end, we hope to build a stronger community and country by celebrating those who serve, learning from them, and taking encouragement from their actions that will set all of us in motion as SERVITUS or servants for others."

OWU students share summer research project results

Ohio Wesleyan University students shared the results of their 2024 summer science research projects Sept. 26 during the university's 32nd annual Patricia Belt Conrades Summer Science Research Symposium.

More than 50 OWU students presented information and answered questions about their 10-week mentored research projects during the two-hour symposium. Local residents presenting, their projects and their mentors included:

Cooper Christie of Mansfield presented "Computer Vision for Root Tip Analysis." Christie was mentored by Chris Wolverton of the Ohio Wesleyan Department of Biological Sciences.

Callie Kampe of Mansfield presented "Developing Pharmacological Treatments for Jet Lag." Kampe was mentored by Chelsea Vadvie of the Ohio Wesleyan Department of Psychology.

Ava Swanson of Mansfield participated in a group presentation of "How Predator Size Affects the Strength of Nest Defense Behavior in House Wrens." Swanson was mentored by Dustin Reichard of the Ohio Wesleyan Department of Biological Sciences.

Laura Tuhela-Reuning, director of the Summer Science Research Program (SSRP), shared her thoughts on the value of such mentored research experiences in the symposium's abstract book.

"Authentic research is quite different from classroom labs — more challenging, more creative, more frustrating, and, ultimately, more rewarding," she said. "One of the most rewarding parts of SSRP for me is watching the students grow as scientists, seeing them take command of a research project, and knowing that they are gaining the confidence to speak and act as scientists."

The Summer Science Research Symposium was held as part of Ohio Wesleyan's annual fall OWU Connection Conference. The conference enabled students to share how their participation in the university's signature experience - the OWU Connection — is helping them to create the personal and professional futures they seek.

Friday Night Lights shining bright for local teams

By Kris Leiter

We just wrapped up week six last Friday, and tomorrow is week seven, and it's hard to imagine we were just talking about week one, or so it seems.

You may remember last year, I spun a yarn and brought you up to speed on the OHSAA computer rankings for football playoffs. This year, the top 16 teams will make the post-season playoffs.

Division IV — Region 14

1. Sandusky Perkins (5-0) 12.9
2. Shelby (5-0) 10.65
3. Ontario (5-0) 10.15
4. Lorain Clearview (4-0) 9.7083
5. Clyde (4-1) 7.6
6. Tontogany Otsego (4-1) 7.25
7. Caledonia River Valley (3-2) 6.9
8. Lodi Cloverleaf (4-1) 6.3222
10. Napoleon (3-2) 5.65
11. Vermilion (4-1) 5.3
12. Bay Village Bay (2-3) 4.6
13. Bellevue (2-3) 4.1
14. Orrville (2-3) 3.7
15. Sheffield Brookside (3-2) 3.5
16. Ottawa-Glandorf (2-3) 3.05
17. Upper Sandusky (2-3) 2.8
18. Wauseon (2-3) 2.6
19. Bellville Clear Fork (1-4) 2.3

Clear Fork 1-5 (0-3, eighth place, Mid-Ohio Athletic Conference)

The Colts may be starting out slow this year going into week seven, but there are still four weeks left. Going into week seven, they are only a few spots outside the 16 team playoff bubble.

Kudos to the Colts, even though they lost to their first opponents, Sandusky Perkins (Sandusky Bay-Lake Conference) and the Granville Blue Aces (Licking County-Buckeye Conference), they are currently ringing in with an unblemished record of 4-0, and each team is currently in first place in their respective conference.

The Colts were able to notch a win in week three against Lexington of 28-3, holding the Minutemen to a mere field goal. Hats off to the defense!

Ontario 6-0 (3-0 Mid-Ohio Conference)

The Warriors are still tauting a great undefeated 6-0 season on the warpath! Warrior defense has held their opponent to only 14 points on many occasions this year. They are currently in the 3 spot in the playoff picture, just under rival Shelby Whippets. These two teams will tangle again on Oct. 18 for another big game!

Division VII — Region 25

1. Berlin Center Western Reserve (5-0) 9.1
2. Hillsdale (5-0) 8.25
3. Monroeville (5-0) 7.25,
4. Malvern (4-1) 7.1
5. Warren John F. Kennedy (4-1) 6.6
6. Windham (5-0) 5.9222
7. Cuyahoga Hts. (2-2) 5.75
8. Lucas (3-2) 3.8111
9. Crestline (3-2) 3.6735
10. McDonald (3-2) 3.6111
11. Lowellville (3-2) 3.5
12. East Palestine (3-2) 3.2606

14. Fairport Harbor Fairport Harding (2-2) 2.25
15. Waterloo (2-3) 2.2051
16. Norwalk St. Paul (2-3) 2.2
17. Lisbon David Anderson (1-3) 1.8194
18. South Central (1-4) 1.5
19. Independence (1-4) 1.4

20. Ashtabula St. John (1-3) 1.125

Crestline 3-2 (0-0 Mid-Buckeye Conference)

Let's give some praise to our Western most school in our Richland County coverage — the Crestline Bulldogs. I have to give a big shout out to the growling Bulldogs, as I cannot remember the last time Crestline has had such a great season!

The Bulldogs notched another victory over Manchester last Friday with 14-6, pushing Crestline over the .500 mark for the season thus far. The Bulldogs are holding their own in the 9 slot in the OHSAA Computer polls, just one slot below MBC member Lucas.

Crestline is a member of the Mid-Buckeye Conference, along with Lucas, Mansfield St. Peters, Mansfield Christian and Central Christian High School. The only two schools in the MBC that have football are Lucas and Crestline. Central Christian is located in Kidron, an easy hour drive east along Interstate 30.

Lucas 3-3 (0-0 eighth Mid-Buckeye Conference)

The Cubs are no stranger to the playoff scenario as they are currently in eighth place, just above MBC conference foe, the Crestline Bulldogs.

You may recognize a few notable teams listed such as Warren JFK in the 5 spot, along with Hillsdale at number 2, as well as McDonald in the 10 spot, all previous playoff opponents to the Cubs. It seems like Lucas handles adversity well for the most part.

The Cubs in weeks two and three fell to defeat at the hands of Hillsdale 26-8 and Smithville 30-25 but toppled Warrensville Heights 21-14.

This Friday, the Cubs will host another long distance opponent, the Amanda-Clearcreek Aces. The Aces are from the Mid-State League - Buckeye Division, approximately 1.5 hours south in Mansfield, located in Licking county. The Aces currently are 3-3.

Division III — Region 10

1. Tol. Central Cath. (4-1) 11.2371
2. Cle. Benedictine (4-1) 10.1639
3. Rocky River (4-1) 9.85,
4. Medina Buckeye (4-1) 8.1
5. Richfield Revere (4-1) 6.7
6. Defiance (3-2) 5.95
7. Grafton Midview (3-2) 5.25
8. Norwalk (2-3) 4.6
9. Maumee (3-2) 4.5
- 10t. Bowling Green (3-2) 4.4
- 10t. Parma Padua Franciscan (3-2) 4.4
12. Cle. Central Cath. (2-3) 3.95
13. Lima Shawnee (2-3) 3.75
14. Parma Hts. Holy Name (2-2) 3.7222
15. Tiffin Columbian (2-3) 3.0596
16. Lexington (2-3) 2.95
17. Rocky River Lutheran West (1-4) 2.85
- 18t. Mansfield Senior (1-4) 2.3
- 18t. Tol. Rogers (2-3) 2.3
20. Copley (1-4) 1.8

Lexington 3-3 (2-0 Ohio Cardinal Conference)

Big Lex is currently .500 and undefeated 2-0 in the OCC. They ring in as the victors the past three weeks. Last week, the Minutemen held the Tygers of Mansfield to only six points! Hats off!

As of week six, they currently sit in the 16 slot, currently in line to qualify for the post season playoffs. Big Lex will host West Holmes in Lexington tomorrow.

West Holmes, an OCC conference foe will also bring in a 3-2 record into Lexington Friday. The Knights have also had victories in their last three games. This may be a game to keep your eye on!

Mansfield 0-6 (0-3 Ohio Cardinal Conference)

CHICK QUEST has begun in Natasha Jolin's third grade classroom at Stingel Elementary at Ontario. To prepare for chick incubation, students are becoming scientists. Students observed and labeled the inside of a table egg. Students also made predictions on if they have a raw or hard boiled egg based on three experiments. Students rolled their egg, candled their egg and tested their egg in water. Then, students tested their prediction outside.
